you're Uh... busine Okay?
Ergh... Sure.
No more inquiring to waste our time. It's time we shall move on the basics of this reality show!

REC
This here is the confessional. What I recall, this is for telling your thoughts and your embarrassing secrets on each other. Obliviously, the location of the confessional cam isn't final until renovation. Which will be... soon. Speaking of which, why don't you all try it out?
Wario, 24

Ummm... Okay. So far. This is abysmal.
Ashley, 13
The Cruelest Girl in Diamond City

REC

I don’t normally say it,
but I agree with Ashley.

Red, ??

The Demon with Heart

REC

If I’m had more common sense by the time Wario sent me a phone call fibbing about a great race, I would have avoided it and return to my regular job routine! Diamond Taxi’s going to be chaos ova’ there.

Dribble, 42

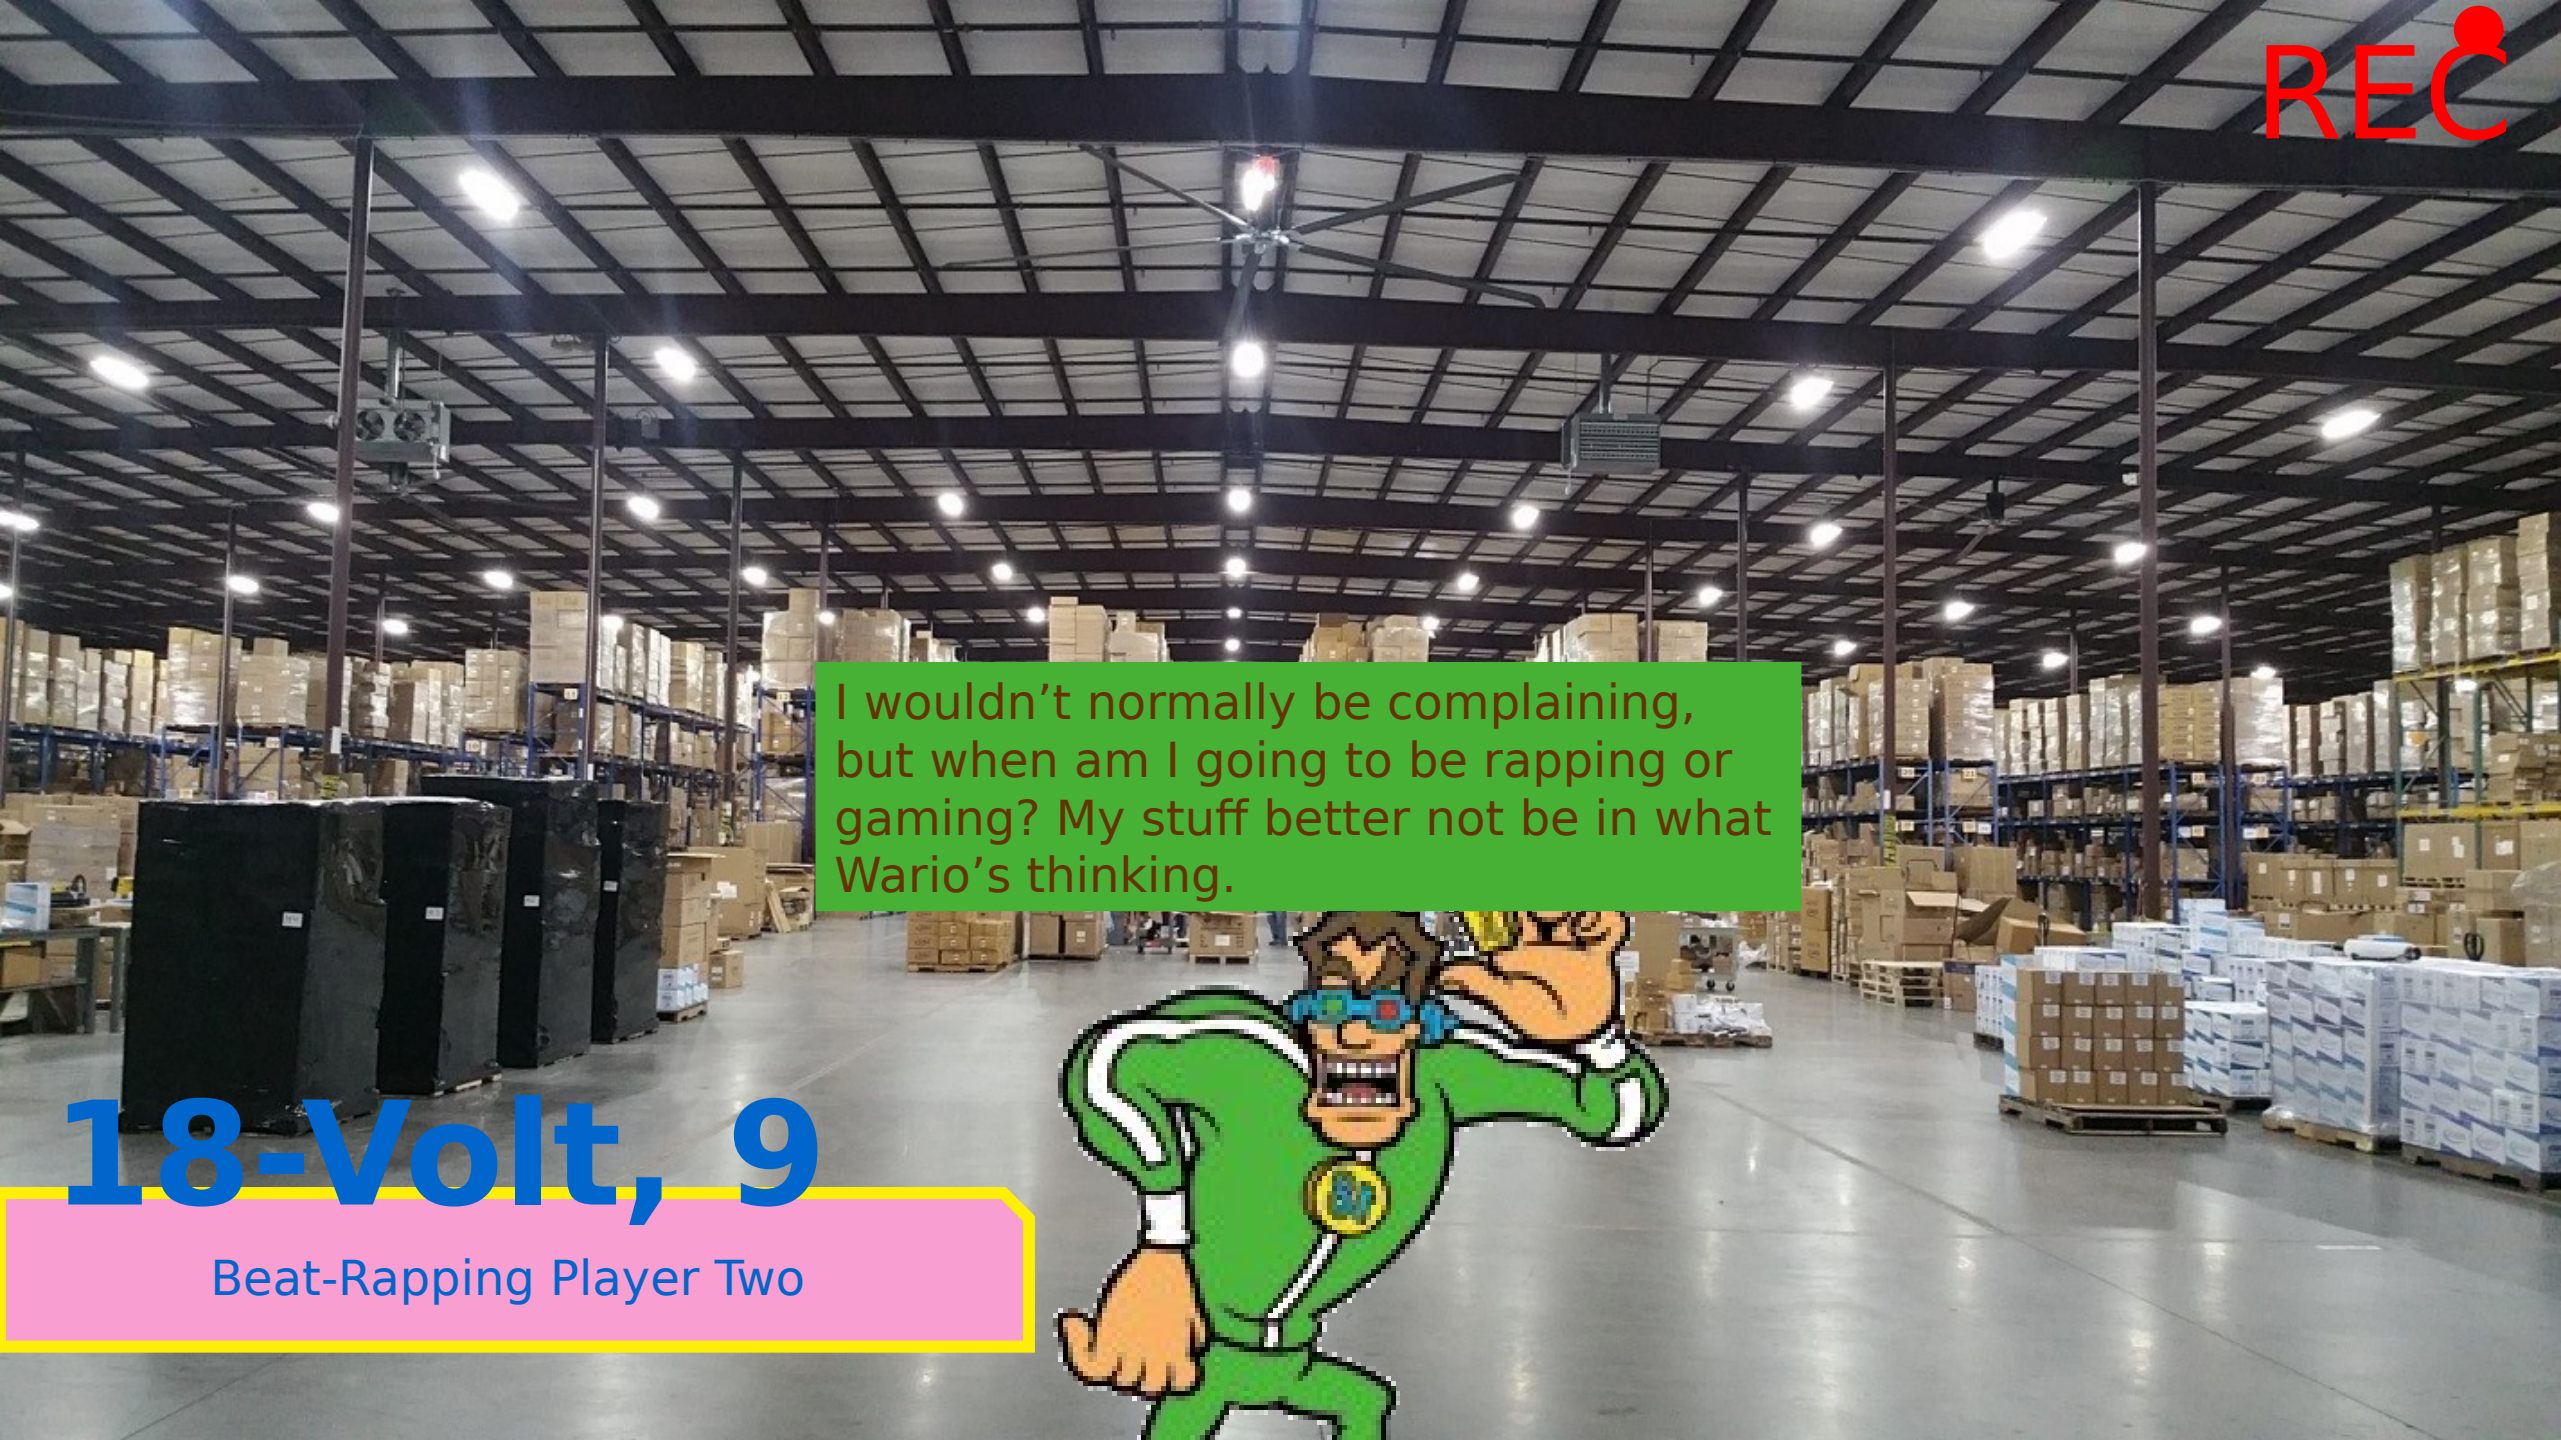
Rough Toughie Cabbie

REC

Yeah, this is the like 9 hundred and ninety-ninth time we have been stiffed and the worst part? We spent all of our customer's earnings!

Spitz, 36

Cool Calming Cabbie



REC
I wouldn’t normally be complaining, but when am I going to be rapping or gaming? My stuff better not be in what Wario’s thinking.
18-Volt, 9
Beat-Rapping Player Two

REC
Bah. It’s starting to get boring. I like it better when we were creating games clutter in one big game. More games, more fun!

Mona. I believe you've struck a fantastic point! This warehouse may not be underwhelming after all.

Dr Crygor, 103

Can’t wait to hear what’s upcoming. It better be something to spruce up this empty ol’ warehouse

Jimmy T, 24

I certainly have no idea yet. Also don’t mind us but sometimes we’ll be using the confessional together.

All I can say is asides being trapped near here for about three months, what else could go wrong?

Penny, 12

The Youngest, Smart Singer

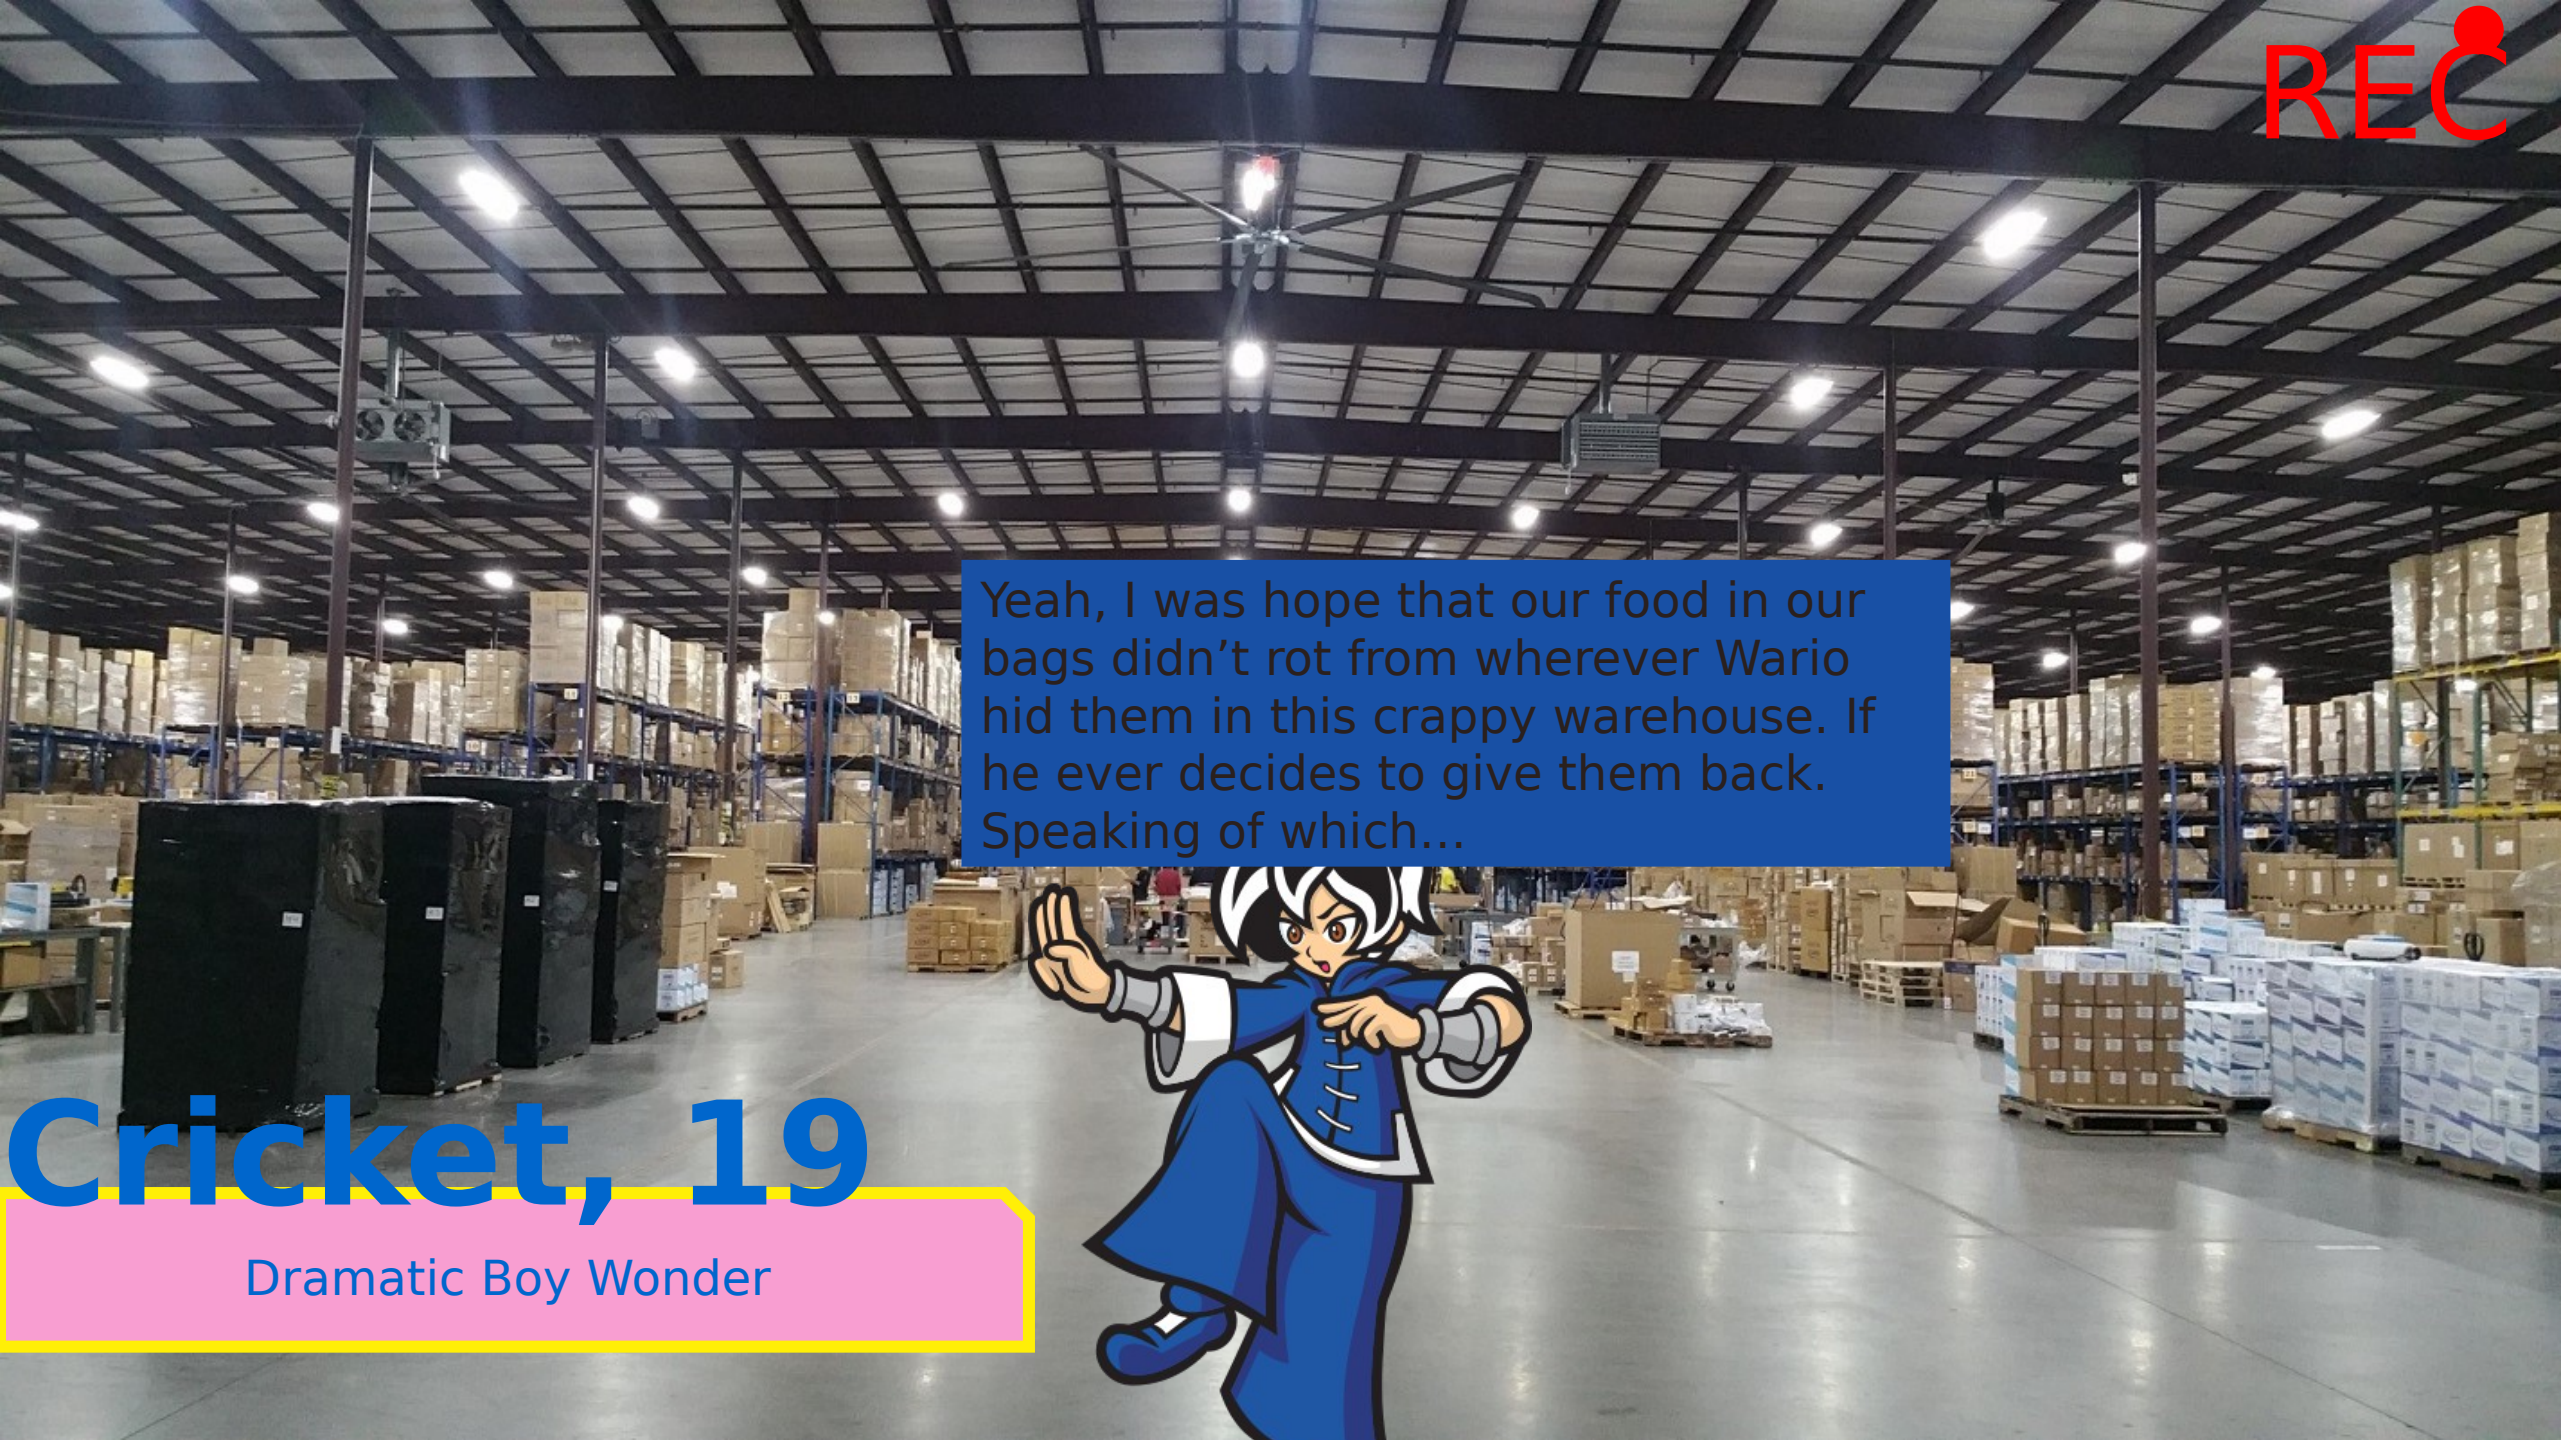
We promised a peaceful meditation by the time we arrive. Also what ever that greedy sod hid our stuff, it better not turn out unsanitary or we else have to call it quits.
Oh? You want to call it quits? Too bad! Wahaha!
Mantis, 65
The Sadist Wii Master



REC
Yeah, I was hope that our food in our bags didn’t rot from wherever Wario hid them in this crappy warehouse. If he ever decides to give them back. Speaking of which...

I’ve calculated we need about 3 wheelbarrows of concrete to construct our room and about 15 construction bars hold it together.
